

Coaching Staff

Coach Kellar (Rosecrans) will be entering her 5th year as the head women's lacrosse coach at IWU. Kellar led the Titans to a 7-9 regular season record in the inaugural year of the program in 2015. In their second year, the Titans were 15-4, placed 2nd in the conference tournament and Kellar received the CCIW "Coach of the Year" award. Prior to coaching at IWU, Kellar was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Siena College as well as a volunteer coach at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Coach Batty will be entering her 2nd season as head coach at Chatham University in Pittsburgh, PA. Batty spent two seasons as assistant coach at IWU, and one season as a volunteer assistant at Division 1 Delaware State University. Prior to that, Batty was a four-year starting goalie at Wesley College and upon graduation had broken school records in most saves in a season and most saves in a career.

Coach Rosenberg will be entering her 2nd season as assistant coach at IWU. Rosenberg spent one season as assistant coach at LaGrange College in GA. Prior to that, Rosenberg was a four-year starting attacker at Berry College in GA and upon graduation had broken both the school and conference records in all time assists while being named a three time all conference selection.

2017 Titan Girls Lacrosse Camp

July 26-28th

Mini Titans: Incoming Grades 1-6
Junior Titans: Incoming Grades 7-12

ABOUT OUR CAMP

The Titan Girls Lacrosse Camps are designed to develop fundamental and advanced lacrosse skills, teamwork, knowledge of the game, and a passion for the sport.

Through instructional training stations, personalized skill drills, and game situations, players will learn new skills and improve their individual game while working on all aspects of the team game.

Campers will work under the instruction of Illinois Wesleyan University coaches and players to hone in on the skills that will get athletes to the next level.

Areas that this camp will concentrate on are stick skills, defensive/offensive concepts, footwork/agility, and communication.

Individualized goalie work will be available.

All camp sessions will take place on the beautiful turf field of Tucci Stadium at Illinois Wesleyan University
